

New release!

NHTSA's Driver Education Toolkit is here

This is a hefty collection of more than 30 fact sheets, reports, report summaries, and curricula descriptions and guidelines, all focused on driver education, including the recent development of national administrative standards. The collection was put together by NHTSA with the assistance of the national driver education community of experts and practitioners. Taken together with proven safety legislation, active law enforcement and the positive engagement of parents, schools and community members, this impressive collection of information and guidelines will give States their best chance to produce safe young drivers.
